1872 Tristan Drive | Smyrna GA 30080

All Units are encouraged to submit a narrative (written) report on or before May 1 to the Department President. The length and format of the report is up to the Unit Members preparing the report. Please note that three unit members must recommend the Unit President for this award and should sign the report.

The following will be judged and awarded according to the separate document "Rules and Regulations for Awarding Department Awards."

- Anita Owens First Place
- Erma H. McCarty Second Place
- Eva Ennis Third Place

A committee of three Past Department Presidents will judge the reports and determine the winners based on the criteria listed below. The narrative should include information about the following activities

- Unit meeting all obligations. Describe what they are and when met)
- Units delivering programs of the ALA. Describe key activities supporting the programs of the ALA (example: VA&R, National Security, Children & Youth, Americanism, Georgia Girls State and Poppy Distribution)
- Units attending District and Department Meetings. Include information on the President's participation as well as that of the unit members.
- Attaining membership goal. Describe what the unit and the unit president did to encourage new members, renewals, and rejoins.
- Accomplishments in their communities. Describe efforts in the wider community and how the ALA participated.

Include any other information about the Unit President's leadership of the Unit and collaborating with members of the community.

District Presidents should consider encouraging Unit Presidents to participate in the President's Unit Award and submit a report to the Department President with a copy to the District President on or before May 1. This will help District Presidents prepare their year-end reports and the narrative for these awards.

Please see the document "Rules and Regulations for Awarding Department Awards" on the Department website. <https://www.aladeptga.com/>

NOTE: the 2024-2025 President's Unit Award of Merit is a different award than the above.
